RE: Speaking Invitation
 Central Massachusetts Alumni Association
 Amherst College
 Worcester, Massachusetts
 Late October or early November

Mr. Joe Kelly, class of '67 and President of the Central Massachusetts Alumni Association of Amherst College, has invited you to speak to his Alumni Association at their annual dinner meeting in late October or early November or some mutually convenient date in Worcester, Massachusetts. The suggested format is 20 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. The topic of your address could be on any subject of your choice from American foreign policy to thoughts on Amherst College. You could expect an audience of 50 - 80 area alumni and spouses. Media coverage would be at your request.

Since this is not a national meeting of the Amherst College alumni, I believe that you should decline the invitation. As you remember, you have spoken at the College and several alumni functions in previous years and I think that your appearances should be before larger audiences rather than the local smaller meetings. If you agree, attached is a letter for your signature.

Dear Mr. Kelly:

Thank you for your kind invitation to address the Central Massachusetts Amherst College Alumni Association at your annual dinner meeting in Worcester sometime in late October or early November. In my new position as Director of Central Intelligence, my schedule is heavily committed for the coming months and I am unable to speak to your group. Of course I always look forward to visiting with fellow alumni and regret missing this opportunity. Please give your members my warmest regards.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Mr. Webster:

Joe Kelly '67, president of the Central Massachusetts Alumni Association, asked that I invite you to be their guest speaker sometime this fall. I know the alumni would be delighted to have you join them.

I realize you have a very demanding schedule, but should you agree to make such an engagement, I would be happy to help you with your travel and lodging arrangements.

I would appreciate it if you would contact me at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Stacey L. Platte
